TO ADVERTISERS.—All advertisements must be handed in by Wednesday morning to insure insertion in time.

NEWSPAPER DECISIONS.

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the post-office, whether directed to his name or another's or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the payment.

2. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

He Had the Date.

At the Central market yesterday a couple of colored men got into a dispute as to the time between the landing of Noah's ark and the day he left it, and in a short time each one was mad enough to fight.

'Yum, sah, yum, but I say it wur' sixty days befo' No' got out'n dat ark.'
'An' I say it wur' only twenty days.'
'You lie, sah!'
'Shoo, now, but what's dis raw'bout?' asked an old bald-head who came around the corner.

The question was explained, and he looked from one to the other and replied: 'Boaf of you are dead wrong, an' heah you am ready to shed blood. Jist hold on a minit.'

He put down his brush, felt in his pockets, and continued:

'Nuffin' like havin' the figgers right by you. Let's see? Heah am de figgers in black and white, jist as I got 'em when I wur' in Chicago. It wur' jist twenty-seven days from de time de ark rested on Mount Ararat to de day when all the folks left de ark to walk on dry groun', if either ob you gen'men want to call me a liar please let me he'ar from you at once!'

Wise Words

Plough deep, while sluggards sleep, and you shall have corn to sell and keep. Pride is loud as want, and a great deal more noisy.

Silks and satins, scarlet and velvets put out the kitchen fire.

Diligence is the mother of good luck. r

Pride breakfasted with plenty, dined with poverty, and supped with infamy.

Extravagance and improvidence end at the prison door.

It is easier to build two chimneys than to keep one in fuel.

If you would know the value of money, go and try to borrow some.

What maintains one vice would bring up two children.

He that goes borrowing returns sorrowing.

Rather go to bed supperless than rise in debt.

Sloth, like rust, consumes faster than labor wears.

A life of leisure and a life of laziness are two different things.

Creditors have better memories than debtors.

The rolling stone gathers no moss.

If you would have your business well done go, if not, send.

It is foolish to lay out money in the shape of repentance.—Franklin.

Try Carter's Little Nerve Pills for any case of nervousness, sleeplessness, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia, &c., relief is sure. The only nerve medicine for the price in the market. In vials at 25 cents.

A Negro Boy Deliberately Roasted to Death.

NEW ORLEANS, June 6.—A small negro boy living with a colored family named Smith, in St. Tammany parish, was roasted to death yesterday in punishment for stealing a loaf of bread. Smith and wife practice voodooism among the ignorant negroes in the parish. The boy was nearly starved and embraced the opportunity afforded by the absence of the family. When the theft was discovered, they tied the boy in the fire place and roasted him so badly he died shortly after.

The Czar and Prisoner.

LONDON, June 6.—A Berlin correspondent says a Russian friend sends a striking picture of the state imprisonment into which recent events have thrown the Czar. The palace at Gatchina is filled with soldiery and police. Every one having business at the palace is subjected to rigorous search whenever they have occasion to go there. The Court will soon remove to Petrihof, which is a small port at the mouth of the Neva. Four ships will always be ready to convey the Czar to and from St. Petersburg, accompanied on either side by a gun boat.

A Nebraska man committed suicide because of the size of his wife's millinery bills; a Michigan bride, because her husband of three days swore at her; a Georgia negro, because he was not satisfied with the quantity of his piety; a California girl, because her father married a woman who was her junior; and a Alabama man, because he thought his wife loved their daughter more than she did him.

An amiable imbecile by the name of R. B. Hayes, who, we believe, once occupied an official position of some kind in Washington, is of the opinion that Roscoe Conkling is a monomaniac. Perhaps Mr. Hayes would like him better if he were a kleptomaniac of the kind which he assiduously retained in the Postoffice Department during his administration.—St. Louis Globe Democrat (Rep.)

The ladies who some time since were unable to go out, having taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, are quite recovered, and have gone on their way rejoicing.
